Attention Business Editors:

Signature Risk Partners Inc. Announces a New Addition to the Underwriting Team.

TORONTO, CANADA - March 22, 2011 - Signature Risk Partners Inc., Canada's leading golf club and winery insurer, is pleased to announce that Kelli Hunt will be joining the underwriting team effective April 04, 2011.

"We are very excited to welcome Kelli to our growing team. Kelli brings over ten years of specialty underwriting experience and has worked closely with various Lloyd's syndicates over the years," said James Grant, President & CEO of Signature Risk Partners Inc.

Kelli began her career in 2001 as an underwriting technician at Dominion and worked her way up to become a commercial underwriter with stops at Aviva, The Citadel, Premier Marine and most recently at Canada Worldwide.

"Kelli is a significant addition to the underwriting group at Signature Risk and she will be a key contact point with our network of leading insurance brokers across the country. As we continue to add leading wineries and golf clubs to the Signature family we are committed to maintaining exceptional service and response times for our partners," said Elaine Collier, Chief Underwriting Officer at Signature Risk.
